A photograph of the Emily Carr University of Art and Design building at night. The building is a modern structure with a prominent glass corner that glows with a warm yellow light. Other parts of the building are illuminated with vibrant blue and purple lights. The sky is dark, and the foreground shows a paved plaza with some silhouettes of people and trees. The text "Emily Carr University of Art and Design" is overlaid in white, centered on the image.

An aerial photograph of the Thompson Rivers University campus. The image shows several large, modern academic buildings with flat roofs and large windows. A prominent feature is a large, circular green lawn in the center, surrounded by paved walkways. To the left, there's a large, curved building with a flat roof. In the background, a river flows through a valley, and hills are visible in the distance. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.
